FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Apex Technology Management Brings on Beverly Hills Assistant Chief of Police, Marc Coopwood

(Redding, CA) October 4, 2021: With Government being the most targeted industry by cybercriminals in 2021, Apex Technology Management, a New Charter Technologies company, announced that BHPD Assistant Chief, Marc Coopwood, will be joining Apex as Vice President, Public Sector, effective October 4, 2021.

Apex Technology Management is a security first Managed Service Provider that is deeply committed to providing the best IT and Cybersecurity solutions in the industry to Municipal Governments. The addition of a tremendous government and senior law enforcement leader like Marc Coopwood represents a significant stride forward in building on that commitment.

"We are so excited about Marc's addition and the experience that he brings to our municipal and law enforcement clients and future clients" said Scott Putnam, President, Apex Technology Management. "As the former Assistant Chief of Police for a high-profile city like Beverly Hills, and former President of the CPOA—the largest law enforcement association in the Country—Marc's understanding of and commitment to supporting local government makes him ideally aligned with Apex and the obvious choice for our Vice President, Public Sector role."

Marc will be joining with 27 years of law enforcement experience. Serving both the City of Sacramento and the City of Beverly Hills. Marc will be bringing his experience and insight with municipal governments to Apex, enhancing our ability to provide superior services and solutions to our municipal governments.

"I am thrilled to join Apex's Executive Team. I am eager to continue learning the company's culture and translate that learning into inspiring action. I have tremendous energy and momentum and cannot wait to contribute to a company that is best in industry and has endless potential for future growth in the IT and Cybersecurity space," said Coopwood.

"We are so pleased to welcome Marc to Apex Technology Management, and to the broader New Charter platform. Marc brings so much expertise in the areas of Law Enforcement and Municipal Government to our platform of 14 companies serving nearly 1,500 clients across North America. His expertise will only help us to get better at serving this important market." Mitch Morgan, CEO New Charter Technologies
